

Friendship means using your words and actions to show others you care.

WEEK
2
1-5TH

DAY 1

Read Proverbs 17:17 (NIRV)

Have you learned about verbs at school? Verbs are action words. So, here's a little exercise. Point to or circle the action words in the sentences below.

- Sam runs around his town for exercise.
- Destiny loves animals.
- Celia helps her mom with dinner.

Did you underline runs, loves, and helps? Great job—you found all the verbs. Now take a look at the first sentence from your verse today. What is the action word?

Yes, a friend loves. The verb or action is love. Choose love when the friend is sad, when the friend is quiet, when the friend is talking a lot and when the friend wants to play a game you really dislike. Friends love. It's what friends do. You can show love as you play, as you listen, as you dance, and as you get a job done. What are some ways you can show love to your friends this week? Think of three specific ideas and talk to a family member about them.

Ask God to help you follow through to show love to your friends in those specific ways. And also, spend some time thanking God for loving you always.

DAY 2

Read 1 Peter 4:8 (NIRV)

Do you know what the word "deeply" means? To love one another deeply simply means to do so with purpose. So, another cool way to say it is that friends should love one another on purpose. Why? Because love is showing others grace and forgiveness. We all mess up sometimes. But when we choose to love others on purpose, it helps us to forgive and move on.

Grab a piece of paper and marker or ask an adult if you can write on a mirror with a washable marker. Write out the words of today's verse and read it aloud. Then, erase or cover up one word and repeat the verse again, including the missing word. Continue in the same way, erasing or covering up one word at a time and repeating the verse until you can recite it from memory.

Thank God for loving you on purpose and for erasing all your sins or mess ups. Ask Him to help you be a good friend by loving others around you too.

Friends love one another.

DAY 4

Read Romans 12:10 (NirV)

Read the scenarios below and choose the response that shows love.

Your friend is sad but you don't know why.

- a. You ignore it and keep playing.
- b. You ask what's wrong and then listen when she's ready to talk.
- c. You tell your friend to stop acting so quiet and weird.

Your friend throws the ball and it goes down in the gutter. You say,

- a. "It's okay. It was an accident."
- b. "Way to go. Now we can't play anymore!"
- c. "I can't believe you did that!"

Your friend misses catching the ball and your kickball team loses at recess.

- a. You yell at your friend in front of everyone.
- b. You refuse to speak to that friend for the rest of recess.
- c. You say, "It's okay" and remind him that you missed a big shot earlier in the game.

It's easy to spot the "right" answers in these scenarios. But in real life, it can be really hard to love and honor others more than yourself. The good news is that God will help you be a good friend, the kind of friend who loves even when it's hard.

Thank God for loving you and for showing you how to love others too. Ask Him to help you honor others more than yourself this week, when it's easy and when it's hard.

DAY 3

Read 1 John 4:7 (NirV)

How can you show your friends that you love and follow God?

The answer is simple: friends love one another because love comes from God. In fact, God IS love. You cannot separate God from love. The biggest way you can show others that you love God is to love the people around you too!

Grab a sheet of paper and some coloring supplies. Draw something special that your friend would like and write this week's bottom line on the page, "Friends love one another." Give your finished artwork to your friend.

Look for ways to show love to your friends.
